ABOUT THE PROJECT

"Love Sings" evolved over 3 years or so. Life had so many changes with the extension of Covid and with 1.0 just making life difficult for all of us. Periodically, I would just write something to calm me down or just let my imagination take over and see what happens. Then, when I introduced each song to Frank Wilkins he too, enjoyed stretching his arranging skills so we could perform the songs as a band. As seasoned musicians Dave, Alvin and Bobby enjoyed what we had done with my songs and when we chose to do the recording project each one added their own feel etc. to contribute their special touch. It evolved to the final product "Love Sings"

BIO

Jazz is a storytelling art, and vocalist/lyricist/ composer Joan Watson-Jones, who calls Derry, New Hampshire and New York City home, has a story to tell.

Armed with a master's degree in music education from the University of Massachusetts-Lowell, Watson-Jones had a long and successful teaching career in The Bronx and in New England. But the jazz seed had been growing in her ever since she was a child in Harlem, where she took piano and tap lessons at the age of four. Later, she learned to play guitar and drums, and was coached and mentored by the late singer Joyce Bryant.

With her husband's encouragement, Watson-Jones gave in to the inner urge of her jazz muse, and became a full-time vocalist, lyricist and composer after she retired from teaching. She has been a mainstay on the New England jazz scene for three decades, was voted Best Jazz Singer in New Hampshire by New Hampshire Magazine and produces and hosts her half-hour podcast, The Jazz Room-host Joan Watson-Jones <https://rss.com/podcasts/the-jazz-room-host-joan-watson-jones>

ABOUT THE TRACKS:

All compositions are by Joan Watson-Jones, except #8 George Gershwin

1. Love Sings 6:14

Understand that love is what is really important in this life.

2. A Kiss in the Morning 3:08

I visualized it as a children's song that would be sung by my Mom or Dad in the morning.

3. I'll Cry Tomorrow 4:51

Teaching school and getting our son off to school during the growing up years was quite hectic and not much different than any other Mom or Dad with school age children with both having jobs to get by.

4. I Chose to Have A Good Day 5:14

Unlike many young families now who have a Mom or Dad who choose to join the armed forces, my husband was drafted during our first year of marriage. He was gone for 2 years, and I had a son while he was overseas. The sentiment of the song is the same for a spouse when one chooses to serve or during the time when one was required to serve. My drummer loves this song as he says it has helped him as he lost his wife 3 years ago.

5. The Quiet Life 6:01

I was just having fun . Here in NH there's not much to do when you're in "covid quarantine". I thought it would be fun to share my backyard sounds with the music the birds provided in the spring and summer.

6. Word Escape Me 3:21

I wrote the song and couldn't think of any words. Frank loved the melody so I decided to just scat instead. It was fun to do this as a change for me and the band.

7. There's a Hard Wind A Blowin' 6:54

Featuring Dan Orlansky Didgeridoo/Thunder

This is a protest song about our present times 2026 and the state of the earths' environment.

8. Someone to Watch Over Me 5:48

George Gershwin said it best. That's what every human needs in this world.

9. Mountain 4:41

A place I need to get to now! It's in Scotland and the mountain is Ben Curachan. My husband is British and we have travelled to England and Scotland off and on for many years. His parents settled in the quiet town of Taynuilt, Agryll for their retirement. A beautiful, peaceful place to rest and recharge without the rush of daily life. I created the video to try and spread a bit of that peace and quiet to anyone who watches it. '

10. Movin' On 3:02

Sorry - here I say Ok what's next? Let's just move on.

11. Love Sings(reprise) 2:00

Oh, one more thing. Don't forget what's really important in this life to keep going.
